

TOWNSEND-SAULMON

The marriage of Miss Maude Catherine Townsend to Dr. Ernest E. Saulmon took place last Saturday morning, September 30th., at the First Christian Church, this city. The Rev. Edward F. Coffman read the Episcopal service. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Dudley Flowers, and was attended by Mrs. Rayburn Guffy as Matron of Honor. Acting as best man was Burt Williams, of Terre Haute, Ind., and the ushers were Milton Scarborough and Dr. E. M. Thompson.

The beautifully decorated altar, banked with ferns and with a background of lighted tapers, made an effective setting for the impressive ring ceremony.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. C. T. Canon, at the piano, and Miss Kathryn Saulmon, vocalist. Mrs. Canon played "The Venetian Love Song," by Nevin, and Miss Saulmon, sister of the groom, sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus."

The bride wore royal blue velvet with wine accessories and her corsage was a specimen Gardenia surrounded by Talisman roses with a spray of Valley Lily. The Matron of Honor wore wine velvet with a corsage of Joanna Hill Roses, and the bride's mother wore blue with a corsage of Gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Saulmon is a daughter of Mrs. Alma Townsend. She is a graduate of the Russellville High School in class of '32. Since her graduation she has held a responsible position with the Logan County Conservation Association. Dr. Saulmon is a native of Wadesville, Ind. He attended Evansville College, Evansville, Ind., and is a graduate of the Ohio State University. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity and Omega Tau Sigma, professional veterinary medical fraternity. He is employed with the U. S. Dept. of Animal Husbandry and is residing in Danville, Ky. Following the wedding breakfast, Dr. and Mrs. Saulmon left for their honeymoon and after a few weeks will be at home in Danville.

Out-of-town people attending the wedding included Burt Williams and Miss Eleanor Walters, of Terre Haute, Ind.; Dr. and Mrs. Max R. Peters, of Dunkirk, Ind.; Miss Kathryn Saulmon, of Granite City, Ill.; Miss Mary Saulmon and Mrs. G. H. Heckman and two children, of Wadesville, Ind.; Mrs. Ernest Boyd, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Annetta Hale, of Mayfield, Ky.
